

I am horrified that Sinclair is abusing their power to force their stations to air anti-Kerry propoganda weeks before the election. Hopefully, this will cause more people to pay attention to the dangers of media consolidation and use this example to defend media consolidation laws. Our very democracy is at stake.